Family Fare For Fourth

An old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration is again planned for the town next Tuesday at the Playstead and Park, this year being conducted for the town by the Andover Jaycees.

Featuring something for everyone, the annual family type celebration will get underway at noon with rides, contests, music and other events, a clambake-barbecue picnic and will be topped off with a mammoth fireworks display at dusk.

John Hosking, serving as general chairman for the Jaycees planning committee, reports sales for the clambake-barbecue are moving along well and advanced reservations are definitely necessary for this feature of the annual Fourth observance which was introduced successfully a year ago.

The holiday program will get underway at noon with the traditional steam caliope making the rounds of the town, and entertaining at the park as well.

At the park, at East Junior High, from noon until 5 p.m. there will be fire truck rides, an art exhibit, bottle exhibit, Good Sports competition for youngsters 5 to 12 years of age, with prizes to be awarded.

There will be crafts demonstrations, games, including a dunk tank, pony rides, and the usual compliment of hot dogs, cotton candy, popcorn, snowcones, ice cream and soft drinks.

The clambake-barbecue will be from 5 to 7 p.m. and will feature a boiled lobster, or half chicken barbecued, native steamed clams, corn-on-the-cob, frankfurts, rolls, pickles, watermelon, and lemonade.

The price of the meal is set at $8.50. A children's menu at $3.50 per child will feature a one-quarter chicken barbecued along with the remainder of the adult menu.

Tickets will not be sold at the park, and must be obtained in advance at any downtown Andover bank, the Sports Shop, or the Recreation/Community Schools office in the Stowe school.

Musical groups will be providing enter-

Water everywhere and not a drop to drink, to paraphrase a famous line, is the current condition for Shawsheen residents, who have been plagued with water quality problems for over a year.

Town crews are currently in the process of cleaning the pipes in the village area with a foam-plug process, which has stirred up scales and dirt and produced water that is almost black in some instances.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark reported this week that the work in Shawsheen is about half way toward completion, with the water discoloration problems probably continuing for another two to three weeks, as the effort to correct the problem continues.

Apologetic for the condition, Clark said that this process, is a final effort to solve the problem economically. If it doesn't work, then he will recommend to the selectmen finance committee and town meeting that the town undertake to replace all the pipes in the village area at a cost estimated to be a least $1 million.

Clark said a spigot is available at the Abbot well on Andover street for residents to obtain water for drinking and other household needs, and residents have been advised of its availability during this difficult period.

The manager also said that while the water being delivered to homes in the village is fit for human consumption, according to state health standards, "it doesn't look good, it shortens the life of appliances and causes discoloration of laundry."

Almost a year ago, town administrators admitted to Shawsheen residents that while the water may be termed safe for human consumption, they wouldn't drink it.

Various attempts to clear up the dirty water conditions in the village have been attempted, without success during the past year.

Source of the problem is baffling, since pipes in other areas of the town are as old and have seen as much service. Some

Town House Topics

Ed Specs To Be On Agenda Item

The school committee will meet next Wednesday night at 8 p.m. at Stowe School to take up a single topic: educational specifications for the proposed secondary school building program.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said Tuesday night the specs are in the process of being revised.

Cooperation Applauded By Teachers

The Andover Education Association has complimented the cooperation between teachers and the central office staff in a letter read to the Andover School Committee at Tuesday night's meeting.

They particularly noted Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert's willingness to meet with various groups, and the teachers' inclusion in the selection process for a new assistant superintendent.

Secretary, Bus Drivers Contracts Signed

The Andover School Committee Tuesday night also approved and signed contracts with the Andover Secretary's Association and the school bus drivers, and in other personnel action accepted four resignations:

Linda Aronson, a high school English teacher who has been on maternity leave since January; Carol Brennan, a special needs instructional aide at West Jr. High; Barbara Downs, a special needs instructional aide at East Jr. High and John McCusker, a high school social studies teacher who has been on leave of absence for the school year just completed.

The committee also elected to tenure Carol Lopez, a Spanish teacher at Andover High.

July Clinics Schedule

Mini-clinics and lead paint clinics are scheduled through the month of July by the Health Department.

Mini-clinics will be held at the Haven, next Wednesday from 2 to 4 p.m. and then on Tuesday, July 11, at Chestnut Court; Tuesday, July 18, at Ballardvale United Church and Tuesday, July 25, at Frye Circle, North Mains st., all between 2 and 4 p.m.

In addition, Mary Hamilton, R.N., will be at the Haven from 2 to 3 p.m. on Wednesday, July 12, 19 and 26.

The lead paint clinics, held at the health department office will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. on July 12 and July 26.

Andover To Get Lottery Funds

Andover will be receiving $55,814 from the state as the first six-month distribution of funds from the State Lottery. The money is from revenues received by the state from the daily number game, Big Money and Instant games.

Distribution of the funds is determined by local per capita property valuation against the state average per capita property valuation.

Militia To Get Washington's Quarters

The Stone building on the Sacred Heart property, supposed to be a replica of George Washington's headquarters at Valley Forge, will be given to the Andover Company of Militia as their quarters.

Selectman Susan T. Poore had suggested the militia be allowed the use of the building at a meeting a few weeks ago, based on a request from the company.

The stone building became town property with the transfer of land to the town, along with the sale of the building to Crowninshield Corporation.

According to an historical booklet about the Shawsheen Dream Village of William M. Wood, produced by the American Woolen Co., Wood had the stone building created as a replica of Washington's headquarters.

Archibald D. Maclaren, chairman of the board of assessors for several years, was reappointed to another three-year term.

Dr. Edward Lenoe and Dr. Richard Secord, were reappointed to the conservation commission and will serve until such time as replacements can be made. Both men have completed their terms and indicated to the manager that they would like to be replaced, but were willing to continue until appointments are made.

Philip Sullivan was reappointed to a three-year term as Towle Fund trustee.

Renee Pruneau, a sophomore, will be the student representative to the school building committee and will be a voting member. Alternate student members will be William Eaton and Peter Canavan.

Dr. James P. Kartell was reappointed to a three-year term as a member of the Board of Health. Dr. Kartell was appointed to fill a vacancy last year and his appointment this week is to a full three-year term.

Leo F. Daley will be a trustee of Spring Grove Cemetery for a three-year term.

S. Joseph Hoffman will serve another three-year term on the Industrial Development Commission, while Mrs. Dorothy M. Sherrerd will serve another year on the same board.

The appointment of Mrs. Sherrerd to only a one-year term is to allow conformance with a policy of the new manager to make appointments for three-year terms. Some boards have up to seven-year appointments.

Clark told selectmen Monday night that his policy of three-year appointments, where not dictated otherwise by statute is based on the feeling that anything less is too short a time and three-year terms more workable.

The manager said that Mrs. Sherrerd is a very valuable member of the IDC, and the one-year appointment is no reflection on service, rather than getting all appointments in conformance with the new policy. She would be eligible for reappointment to a full term next year.

Named to the resource bank for the school building committee were Louis Stella, Jr., Mark DeLisio and Sandra N. Chateauf.

In the area of municipal employment, selectmen confirmed the appointment of Robin L. Salter, 26 High St., as an account clerk in the collector-treasurer office and Kevin L. Muise, as special summer help in the cemetery department.

These appointments, along with several made to the Recreation/Community Schools department, caused the town manager to advise the selectmen that in some cases relatives of municipal employees are appointed to full time, or part time positions. Clark said the appointment is not made because they are offspring of employees but after an open, competitive process, and in no instance is a relative appointed to work within the same department. The manager said the town makes every effort to hire Andover people for municipal employment.

To Our Fellow Citizens:

The School Committee with the assistance of the administration, has established four major directions to be emphasized in the upcoming academic year.

1. Curriculum Improvement: Specifically, increased focus will be attempted in areas of:

c) Diploma Requirements — competency exams and diplomas reflecting different levels of achievement.

b) K-12 coordination in science, social studies, and health.

c) Greater application of skills at the elementary schools.

d) Pilot Project — Early Childhood Growth and Development Model.

e) Secondary school emphasis.

f) Explore multi-aged grouping with community.

g) Emphasis on writing and speaking skills.

2. Maintenance Program

a) Phase II of building program (renovations and construction at secondary level).

b) Replacement schedule for equipment.

3. Town-School Cooperation

a) Central purchasing.

b) Data processing.

c) Buildings and grounds.

4. Improve Climate of Respect for Others and Property.

We, as a Committee, still feel we must continue to stabilize the tax rate and yet not erode the quality of education in the Andover School System. Through your School Committee's policies, the Superintendent and his staff will continue to pursue educational excellence.

The public schools are your schools. We invite you, the citizens and parents, to make any suggestions that will benefit your schools.

New Officers

The North Reading Choral Society recently held a gala celebration to end the music season and to welcome its new members at the home of Bob and Mary Ristino.

Nancy Ferretti, outgoing president, presented the newly elected officers to the members. Officers include Sigrid Perkins, president; Richard Graber, Andover, vice-president; Barbara Priest, secretary; Dan Durant, treasurer and Carol Leavitt, librarian.

Lets Talk About Tofu...

Tofu — the miracle food from Asia, part of the Far Eastern culture since the 1300's. Tofu is derived from the soybean and often called soybean curd or soybean cheese. One eight ounce "cake" includes all of the eight essential amino acids. It has no cholesterol, is very low in saturated fats and contains only 147 calories. It is also an excellent source of calcium, iron, potassium, phosphorus, sodium, essential B vitamins, choline and vitamin E. Not only is Tofu inexpensive, it is also very versatile. Use it in salads, soups, with vegetables, with toast, on sandwiches, with eggs, in sauces and casseroles.

The Earthfood Store carries the finest Tofu made. We invite you to come in and treat yourself to this miracle food.

U. Sylvester Berger

Bell Labs Director Retires

U. Sylvester Berger, a resident of 33 Lincoln Circle, Andover, recently retired as director of Bell Laboratories Carrier and Radio Terminal Laboratory in North Andover. He served with the Bell System's research and development unit and was involved in all the Bell System's major microwave transmission developments since 1949. He guided the application of solid-state electronics to hold down the cost of new systems and to improve performance of existing facilities.

When Berger joined Bell Labs, he was involved in exploratory circuit research for voice-operated devices such as echo suppressors. During World War II, he helped develop radio receivers for the military. He also designed mobile telephone equipment for Bell System use. In 1952, he was promoted to supervise military communications equipment design.

Three years later, he moved to Massachusetts to head microwave radio systems, pulse code modulation and coaxial systems development at Bell Labs' newly opened Merrimack Valley facility. In 1957 he was made assistant director of the Microwave and Carrier Systems Laboratory, and in 1961 he was appointed director of all microwave radio systems projects. In 1976, Berger assumed responsibilities for the development of carrier terminals including equipment now being manufactured for a large microwave communications system in Saudi Arabia.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, Mr. Berger received his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering in 1937 from Ohio State University. He is a member of the honorary engineering societies Tau Beta Pi and Phi Eta Sigma and a Fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers. He has 11 patents related to telephone and radio transmission and has written eight articles on such subjects.

Berger has served as a member of the board of the Merrimack Valley Symphony Society. He and his wife Margaret, have lived in Andover for 22 years. They have two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Caughey

Caughey-Breed

At home in Newmarket, New Hampshire, are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin Caughey, who were married June 10 in Silver Lake, California.

The bride is the former Carol Lynn Breed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen F. Breed of Washington, D.C., and the groom is the son of Mrs. Robert F. Bell of Reading and Mr. Martin T. Caughey, formerly of Andover. The Rev. Raymond Knapp officiated at the 12 o'clock ceremony at the Silver Lake Chapel, which was decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums and mountain greenery.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory-colored gown of gauze cloth, with square neckline and long, full sleeves with bands of self embroidery at the cuffs. She wore a wreath of ivory baby roses and lilies of the valley, and carried a matching bouquet.

Mrs. Maria Sanders of Sanger, Calif.,

attended her sister as matron of honor, and another sister, Eleanor Breed, of Sutter Creek, Calif., was maid of honor. They wore flounced skirts in aqua blue flowered dotted swiss with white eyelet trim, white camisole tops and shawls to match their skirts, and carried bouquets of white carnations, mountain greenery and forget-me-nots with aqua and green streamers.

Wearing matching outfits and carrying bouquets with green and white streamers, were the bridesmaids, Tatiana Moller of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Sharon Barakatt of Berkeley, Calif.

Howard Wernyess of Conway, N.H., served as best man, and ushers included Richard Caughey and Robert Bell, both of Reading, and the bride's cousin, Keith Bray, of Sacramento, Calif.

The new Mrs. Caughey is a graduating senior at California State University in Chico, while her husband is a graduating senior at the University of New Hampshire, with a major in park management.

Following a reception in Silver Lake, the couple took a wedding trip to the North Pacific Coast and Yellowstone National Park.

Humidity is the measure of the amount of moisture in the air. The higher the humidity, the less water will be lost by a plant. You can raise the humidity level of a room in your house by using a humidifier or by making a humidifier yourself. To do the latter, fill a deep pan with rock, aquarium gravel, or any non-organic large granulated material and cover it with water. Set your plants on the rocks. The rocks surface area allows for greater evaporation of water and thus raises the humidity around the plant.

And for beautiful plants to add to your collection, see us at TRULL'S HILL FLOWER CENTER, 411 River Rd., 851-6161. Our plants are grown in our own greenhouses, and we feature a full variety of hanging, floor and table plants for your selection. Remember, a plant also makes an ideal gift for every occasion. Shawsheen engineers have felt that possibly the change in the industrial operation of the former Raytheon plant has had an effect, since the complex now does not use the same amount of water as either Raytheon or the American Woolen Company before it.

But, whatever the cause, and it has had thorough examination by hydraulic engineers and consultants, residents remain upset, and rightfully so, about the water quality over an extended period of time.

The foam-plug method was recommended last fall by Director of Public Works, Robert E. McQuade, who advised selectmen and the manager that the process has proven effective in Washington, D.C. on a similar problem.

It was decided to try the method in an effort to avoid the large expenditure required for replacement of pipes.

A town meeting article this spring was reduced from the original total pipe replacement to a project of $200,000 for installation of new pipes in a few sections where the lines had become brittle with age.

Clark said this week that the decision was a prudent one, in that it was a proven effort and less expensive.

When completed, the lines will be monitored to see if the problem has been corrected. If not, then the town meeting of next April will be asked to appropriate the necessary funds to replace the pipes.

Clark added that while the project will be an expensive one, residents of the town must realize that Shawsheen residents are not receiving full use of the public water supply like others in the community.

The town has taken steps necessary to correct the problem and if successful, that the community must react in an equitable manner.

Meanwhile, Clark said, he will meet with groups from the Shawsheen area to get an idea of how much damage has been done to personal property through the water problems.

"We are already aware of the inconvenience caused, and will recommend abatement of water bills. This is due to the necessity of flushing lines and people having to run water for long periods of time to attempt to clear the pipes."

"Since we get a feel of the total scope of the damage, we will make recommendations to the selectmen as to what our course should be in the matter," Clark said.

As for claims for damages, they will be considered on an individual basis, the manager said, indicating that the general deterioration of the lines is beyond the control of the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Erik P. Jensen

Jensen-Gilday

The shore of Worthley Pond, Maine, fronting the cottage of Peter Jensen, grandfather of the bridegroom, was the setting June 17 for the marriage of Nancy Leigh Gilday and Erik P. Jensen. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harriet F. Kristenson, Rye Beach, N.H., and Paul A. Gilday, Andover. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jensen, Taylorville, Indiana, are parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. Samuel Henderson, pastor of the Christ Episcopal Church, Norway, Maine, officiated at the double-ring nuptial ceremony.

Susan Jensen, sister of the bridegroom, was soloist. Traditional wedding music was furnished by Karl Krisenson at the piano.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown with Alencon lace bodice and A-line voile cotton skirt en train, fashioned with a wedding band neckline, empire waist and bishop lace sleeves. She carried a prayer book, also carried by her grandmother and mother at their weddings, topped with ivory sweetheart roses, stephanotis and greens.

Diane F. Gilday was maid of honor for her sister. Her bridesmaid was Wendy L. Gilday, also a sister of the bride. Their halter gowns with matching cpalets were a sheer flowered print with an ivory underlay. Each carried three long-stemmed roses, two ivory and one apricot-colored.

Peter Jensen, of Pittsfield, was best man for his brother.

A reception on the grounds of the Jensen cottage was catered by Mrs. June Nisbet, who also made and decorated the wedding cake. Terri Jensen, sister of the bridegroom, circulated the guest book. Another sister, Cathy Jensen, attended the gift table.

Both graduates of the University of Maine at Orono, the bride is employed by the Advertiser-Democrat, Norway. Her husband is a physical education instructor for SD 17 elementary schools.

Theater At Brooks To Open Season

To kick off the summer season at The Theatre at Brooks will be Last Of The Red Hot Lovers, a hilarious comedy by Neil Simon.

It tells of a middle age man, who feeling past his prime, tries to have affairs with three women, one being his wife's best friend. Elliot Winnick of Andover will direct the first Show. Winnick has a long list of credits both professionally as well as in Community theatre. Originally hailing from New York City, Mr. Winnick has directed for regional and summer theatres in that area. His credentials are impressive as an actor, also. He has appeared with the Maurice Evans Entertainment troupe and with Ben Gazzara. Currently he is the president of Andover Community Theatre. Audiences will remember his direction last fall of Prisoner of Second Avenue, another Simon success.

Richard Seguin, well known to local audiences for his roles in such highly acclaimed successes as Henry in "Lion in Winter," Teva in "Fidler on the Roof," Walter in "Don't Drink the Water," and Willy Loman in "Death of a Salesman," will be playing the lead role of Barney Cashman in Last of the Red Hot Lovers.

Seguin received national accolades for his performance in Endgame, the Regional Winner in the New England Theatre Competition.

The Theatre will open with Last of the Red Hot Lovers on July 6 and run 7, 8, 9 and 13, 14, 15 and 16.

Tickets will also be available at the door.

Hockey Program Retained

Varsity ice hockey in Andover got a reprieve Tuesday night, when the school committee postponed a reorganization of the phys ed department that could have been a tradeoff for the "waning" sport.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert and Athletic Director Richard Swift had hoped to beef up the phys ed administration with two part-time department heads. They anticipated finding $13,500 for the change by dropping the hockey program they consider inadequate.

A roomful of hockey supporters listened while several coaches and leaders of the Andover Hockey Association made a plea to keep the sport and, in the end, it wasn't a question of losing it anyway.

While committee consensus was pre-reorganization, the problem came with the funds.

Following a 2-2 impasse on a motion to seek funds within the existing budget, the committee voted 3-1 to postpone reorganization until next year's budget deliberation.

Overloaded Department

Seifert led off the presentation by expressing concern over how the proliferation of phys ed and athletic programs in recent years has overloaded the administration. He said that monitoring of the programs is no longer satisfactory, and that quantity versus quality is becoming a very strong issue.

While it was no reflection on Swift, he said, "the ability to keep all of it together has been facing us in the last couple of years."

A total of 158 people now report to Swift, while Swift maintains that other systems of a comparable size have at least one full-time administrator in addition to the director.

Seifert concluded that if something must go, it should be hockey, "where the support level leaves much to be desired."

Swift added that over the past six to seven years, the phys ed program has grown tremendously through the mandated addition of adaptive phys ed and girls teams, and the expansion of intramural sports, particularly in the intermediate grades. Fourteen girls teams have been added in the interscholastic area.

Swift was asking for two halftime department heads — one each for the elementary and secondary levels. Since they would come from the ranks of the phys ed teachers, he would then add another full-time teacher.

Hockey On Wane?

Swift said he has held a deep concern about the hockey program for a number of years, particularly because there have not been funds to expand the JV program. There is only a limited, one-hour-a-week program for JV, and no program at all for 8th and 9th graders. He said a daily program was needed to make Andover hockey competitive in the Merrimack Valley, which is one of the outstanding leagues for hockey.

"From my point of view," he said, "hockey has the same value and benefits as any other sport, providing we can run it properly. But we're trying to be objective."

"If we cannot have a full hockey program," he concluded, "we may be better off without it."

He cited as particular disadvantages, high per pupil cost for hockey and a lower commitment by students than to other sports.

He said only 40 boys participated in varsity hockey last year, at a cost of $3185, or $205 per pupil, whereas football involves 256 boys at a cost of $106 per; basketball, 189 boys at $93 per and baseball, 107 boys at $106 per.

He said participation in the Andover Hockey Association by youths 7 to 14 has dropped roughly 50 percent, while intramural hockey had only 15 participants this year compared to 185 six years ago. He said 70 to 80 used to try out for varsity hockey, but this year they had barely enough with no cuts. Of the 30 who did participate, he said, 11 play other sports as well.

In other sports, Seifert added, the numbers are increasing.

Swift went on that the status of hockey facilities is another concern; one rink in the area has been closed, overloading those Andover High uses, and another is in receivership.

Alternative To Hockey?

Peter Grogan, Andover High's hockey coach for the past season, maintained that schoolboy hockey in Massachusetts has the highest level of proficiency of any other sport, and that the boys consider it "an honor to play the best."

Seifert countered that the schools are "not in the business of competition, but of providing a good training program," while Grogan maintained that loss of competition "takes away a great deal of spirit."

He said that 150 youngsters recently signed up, with $35 down, for the youth hockey fall program, whereas only 10 signed up for youth football, with no money down.

We're not talking about just 40 boys, he said, "but 300 who've been playing since they were 8 years old. If you take away the varsity program, you take away a great deal of their aspiration."

He charged that the "greatest apathy is in the athletic department. Every sport has its off-season training program but hockey, he said, and noted that his efforts for off-season weight-lifting has been to no

Kolaski Critical Of Class Combine

The combination second-third grade proposed for Shawsheen School this fall got a further nod from the school committee Tuesday night, in spite of an effort of School Committeeman Casimir Kolaski to get his colleagues to reconsider.

The committee had challenged Principal Isabelle Dobbie in May to come up with a "creative solution" to the problem of both a second and third grade class that were too small to have their own teachers, in keeping with the systemwide staffing teacher-pupil ratio, and they gave her an okay at an earlier meeting in June to go ahead with a combination Grade.

Kolaski's motion Tuesday to reconsider failed Tuesday for lack of a second.

His main objection was that there had not been time enough for communication with parents, or parental involvement in the selection process.

Miss Dobbie notified parents of youngsters who would be in the combination grade by a note on their last report cards. She said she didn't want to give them details, however, until she had presented them to the school committee Tuesday night.

She said youngsters were selected on the basis of their academic achievement, work habits and ability to interact positively in the classroom.

She said parents would be further informed over the summer about what to expect in the fall.

Unit B will now consist of one second grade, the second-third combination and two third grades. Miss Dobbie said the pupils will continue to work at their own levels in AIRS and IMS and at their appropriate grade levels in science and social studies. One change is that both second and third grade youngsters will begin cursive writing in November.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert added that the combination was just a "moderate regrouping" and "not that much of a change," and that there would be no fundamental changes in instructional methods or materials.

Committeeman Joseph Finn noted that last fall, when the administration suggested combined grades as an answer to declining enrollment at Shawsheen, Kolaski had objected that the plan wasn't particularly well thought out, "even though the superintendent had mentioned it on several occasions and believed it was an educationally sound move."

But, Finn went on, a combination grade could no longer be considered a surprise.

Chairman David Ahouse also noted that combined grades were a "cost effective" way of dealing with declining enrollments, a problem that will get worse in the system before it gets better.

Miss Dobbie added that she started teaching in Andover in a combination first and second grade with 35 children, "with no questions asked."

Rafton Is Honored

On June 21, at a meeting at the Harvard Faculty Club in Cambridge, Harold R. Rafton was presented with a "Humanist Fellow Award". This was in the form of a plaque from the American Humanist Association, the national organization of Humanists. The award was in recognition of Rafton's services to Humanism since the early forties. He served as an officer of the Association for many years, contributed to its literature, and was the founder and past president of the "Humanist Fellowship of Boston."

"Humanism" is a philosophy which views the universe from the scientific rather than from the theological perspective, and is particularly concerned with the welfare of mankind. Rafton is, by profession a chemist, and since his retirement in 1958 he has engaged actively in conservation locally, chiefly with the Andover Village Improvement Society (AVIS). Conservation is a practical exemplification of Humanism, since it relates the scientific concept of man as an integral part of nature with man's welfare, by preserving and protecting his natural environment.

In 1962, Rafton received a citation from the Massachusetts Audubon Society for initiating and fostering the campaign which saved Lawrence's Den Rock Park from commercial exploitation. Later, he also initiated the campaign which saved Lawrence's Philip J. Riley Park from sale to private interests, and thus retained it for public use. In 1970, he was chosen for its "Community Service Award" by the Andover Chamber of Commerce. The award was symbolized by planting an ash tree at the northerly frontage of the new Andover fire station on North Main Street, with an explanatory tablet of stainless steel mounted on a natural stone near the base of the tree.

In 1973, Rafton and his wife, Helen, were the joint recipients of the first "Outstanding Conservationists Award," in the form of a plaque, from the "Commonwealth of Massachusetts State Committee for Conservation of Soil, Water and Related Resources." Rafton is a member of the Harvard Clubs of Andover and Boston, of the Appalachian Mountain Club, as well as of a number of other scientific and conservation organizations. He resides at 9 Alden Road in Andover.

Sharing The Problems Of Shawsheen

Shawsheen residents have been living with a most uncomfortable water situation for some time now.

In recent weeks, conditions there have worsened due to the town's efforts to make a final, economical approach to removing the dirty water problems which have plagued the area for well over a year.

Public works crews are now attempting to clean the pipes with a foam-plug method—the insertion of a foam type plug to run through the pipes and remove scale and particles built up over the years.

The work has aggravated the problem, which, hopefully will be a temporary situation.

But, the Shawsheen residents, we are sure, have about reached the end of the line with sympathy.

Administrators now estimate that the problem will exist in the village area for another two to three weeks, as the pipes are cleaned, flushed and hopefully returned to carrying clean water to homes.

Meanwhile the residents effected will have to go to the Abbot Well on Andover street for drinking water, be aware of the dangers to appliances when the dirty water begins flowing and be inconvenienced by probably having to go to laundromats for clothes cleaning.

The town manager has indicated that once the problem is resolved, then he will work out some manner of abating water bills to the Shawsheen residents. Claims which may result from soiled laundry or damaged personal property will have to be examined on an individual basis.

If the current method aimed at curing the problem in Shawsheen is unsuccessful, then a major construction project will be required.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark said this week that if the foam-plug operation is unsuccessful after completion and close monitoring, then he will recommend to selectmen, Finance Committee and town meeting next April that the water pipes in Shawsheen be replaced.

Best estimate of the cost of such a project is $1 million.

Town meeting this past year delayed the project in anticipation of going toward the new pipe-cleaning effort, which has proven successful in other communities.

We realize that the annual town meeting is a long way off, but in view of what is a national trend toward relief for the local taxpayer (Proposition 13, etc.) we feel it is well for all residents to bear in mind the problems of Shawsheen.

Residents there have been understanding and cooperative with town officials for over a year now, as attempts have been made to improve the water quality in the village.

They are now rightfully more than just a little upset as the condition continues, even with the understanding that the pipe-cleaning effort is underway.

If the effort is successful and the town can again deliver water to Shawsheen of the quality other Andover residents receive, then a major expenditure may be averted.

But, if the method doesn't work, then it is absolutely necessary that Andover voters share in the cost of going the ultimate route and replacing the pipes in Shawsheen. This, even in view, of the potential of a $10 million school project facing next year's annual town meeting.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — June, 1903

The Ballardvale Fife and Drum corps will give an entertainment in Bradlee hall next Wednesday evening. A fine program is promised including recitations by Joseph T. Lovejoy. Admission will be 10 cents.

Henry M. Hayward of Andover was re-elected president of the "Forty-Niners," at the annual meeting held at the Revere House. The association is a group of the hardy men who made the famous gold rush across the country.

At the anniversary program at Abbot Academy this past weekend, the cornerstone was laid for the McKeen building and a handsome gift of $10,000 presented by George Davis of North Andover. The hall will be known as Davis Hall.

William Knipe, the local plumber, wishes to announce that he is prepared to furnish the new gas burner. It is called Central Air and rated to give as much light as three mantle pieces.

An umbrella and two books were left in town hall following Punchard graduation exercises. They may be claimed by conferring with Janitor Saunders.

50 Years Ago — June, 1928

Seven permits allowing the sale of fireworks for the Fourth of July were issued this past week by Fire Chief Charles F. Emerson.

The Sanborn Estate, consisting of 109 acres and 12 buildings, and having frontage on Sunset Rock Road and Ballardvale Road, was sold this past week in nine separate parcels.

At the annual Punchard Alumni Reunion last Saturday, it was announced that a special scholarship would be established in memory of Mary Alice Abbot, long time teacher at the school. Already $100 has been raised.

John A. Hagerty has returned to his post as driver at the Ballardvale Engine House, following his annual two weeks vacation. During his absence, John J. McGrath of Hartigan Court, substituted.

George Bruce, proprietor of the Ballardvale store and post office, is making extensive improvements at his place of business, having the interior painted and other improvements made. Mr. Bruce recently took over the business from Roy Haynes.

On Energy

To the Editor of the Townsman

It is no surprise that so many thousands of people, young and old, many from as far away as Florida and California, gathered together at Seabrook last weekend to demonstrate their opposition to the construction of the nuclear power plant in that town.

The non-violent protest, organized by the Clamshell Alliance, emphasizes the fact that now is the time to decide our en-

Have you filled in and returned your questionnaire from The Haven? They need your response to prepare the fall program. If you don't let them know your desires, you'll have no right to complain if your special interest is not accommodated! Fill it in and get it to The Haven today.

The hot lunch program at West Elementary School will continue through the summer just as it was during the school year. Call for reservations and transportation. The Haven has two phone numbers so if one is busy, try the other. (475-3968 and 475-4165.)

Have you reserved your place for the "Day at Hampton Beach?" It is scheduled for July 19 and transportation will cost you $3. Any other costs are those you choose to incur yourself. Let them know at The Haven that you'd like to go.

The next baseball outing is the Red Sox game at The Fenway on August 10. Get your ticket at The Haven before they are sold out.

Every Monday morning about 9:15 Margaret Pike Cronin conducts a session in free art expression, with instruction in many varied media. There is also instruction in knitting, crocheting and needlepoint...and its free. You are invited to stop by and visit, observe, and if you like what you see, participate in the activities of the group.

And if arts and crafts are not to your liking, there is a bridge group the same hours every Monday morning and they are always happy to welcome new people.

Line dancing and table tennis are scheduled on Tuesdays and will continue through the summer. (The Haven is air-conditioned, you know.)

Reservations are being taken now for the Maine Coast-Lobster Bake trip August 21-23. ergy future.

As I see it we have two options. The first is the nuclear route, which the Public Service Co. of New Hampshire seems to want to impose on us in spite of intense local opposition. What would we have to look forward to in a nuclear future? When we look at the facts, it doesn't look good. Soaring construction costs financed by the utility users point to higher electricity bills. An analysis of the nuclear fuel cycle indicates dangers from radioactivity every step of the way from the mining of uranium (uranium miners suffer an abnormally high cancer rate), to the transportation of radioactive fuel and wastes to the yet unknown consequences of low-level radiation emitted from an operating plant to the final and perhaps the greatest danger — the wastes from the plant which dangerously toxic for thousands of years. As yet, no adequate plan exists for the safe disposal of these wastes.

Besides risking our health and that our children in a radioactive environment, nuclear power poses threats to the natural environment upon which we depend for all we need to live. In Seabrook, the cooling system could seriously disrupt the delicate ecological balance of the estuarine environment, breeding grounds for many economically important species such as clams and lobsters by heating the coastal waters. The leakage of wastes would also pose a serious threat to the health of our rivers, lakes and oceans.

The alternate route, which is ours if we want it, is the push toward energy sources which are decentralized, ultimately cheap, safe, and environmentally sound. This route requires first a strong emphasis on conservation of our fossil fuels and secondly the broad-scale use of solar heating, electricity generation by wind, co-generation, small-scale hydroelectric facilities, geothermal and many other feasible sources of electricity. Since these energy sources tend to be more localized than traditional sources, production will be localized and thus not subject to embargos, artificial pricing and terrorism.

The choice is ours. I believe that we all would like to see a greener, healthier, and more stable future for ourselves and our children. But we must act now—conserving, pushing for clean energy and opposing a nuclear future.

For two consecutive days, the scouts carried countless cartons of books from the Theater Building to the library's sidewalk area. They worked with determination and spirit that amazed us. Their efficiency insured our ability to display the many books which had been donated to our sale. When the sale was over, the boys promptly reappeared and worked until all was cleared away.

We feel these scouts are a fine example of youth concerned and involved with their community. Their eagerness seems to be a reflection of their adult leaders whose dedication to youngsters turns theory into fact. Although these boys will continue to mature in many ways, they are already veterans in the art of giving. We are very proud to have them as our "friends."

Everyone talks about the pressures of modern life and how much tension we live with daily. We can't wait to get home from work, have a drink, and sit down and relax in front of the television set. But that isn't necessarily the most relaxing thing that could be done. More relaxing, ultimately, would be a little exercise instead of the TV. Exercise does not have to take up a lot of time or be boring. You can, for instance, instead of driving that block to pick up the paper or extra groceries, try walking. Not only do you get exercise, it also helps you to unwind from daily pressures. When your body feels better, your mind will too.

Enhance your diet with the addition of natural foods from NATURAL FOOD & VITAMINS, 239 Winthrop Ave., Jct. 114 & 495, Lawrence, 683-7140; we carry an outstanding selection of natural foods and vitamins for you to choose from, and we welcome you to come in and browse. Giants Grab First Place

By Rick Harrison

The Giants captured three games last week to grab undisputed possession of first place in the second half standings of the National League in the Andover Major Little League.

However, breathing right down their neck entering the final week of regular season play were the Braves, Cardinals and Dodgers. All were 4-3.

one game behind...with two games left.

The Cubs, meanwhile, did a fast fade with three straight losses.

In the American League things were almost as hectic.

The first-half champion White Sox took the second-half lead at 6-1, but still in the chase were the Tigers at 5-2, the Yankees at 4-2, the Orioles at 4-3 and the Red Sox at 4-3.

NATIONAL MAJOR

Giants, 6-4

Rob Wilson went the six-inning route, Kurt Smith rapped two doubles and Chris Scarpa stroked two safeties as the surging Giants toppled the skidding Cubs, 6-4.

Losing pitcher Sean Burns spiked two hits for the Cubs, while Jim Wiseman belted a double and single.

Pirates, 12-10

Andy Sartory's outstanding catch on a drive by John Geiger in the sixth sent the game into extra frames, and the Pirates took advantage by scoring twice in the seventh to nudge the Cards, 12-10.

Mark Lefebvre contributed a double and single for three RBI, Mike Donlon laced three hits, Bill Baldwin two and Bob DiTroia two for the Pirates. Dave Morse was the winning chucker in relief.

Zack Apgar laced three hits and Mark Grams had a two-run single for the Cards.

Braves, 9-1

ing pitching for the Braves, as the classy right-hander hiked his record to 7-0 with a three-hitter to guide his club past the Dodgers, 9-1.

Twomey fanned 10 and the only run off him was unearned.

Mike seems to do his best hitting when he is on the mound, and this game was no exception as he slammed two doubles and collected three RBI.

Dave Laporte also enjoyed a fine evening with 4-for-4 and two ribbies.

The three Dodger hits were a double by Bob Wilson and singles by Bill Brecher and Chuck Arrigo.

Giants, 11-10

Kurt Smith doubled home the winning run in the seventh as the Giants outlasted the Mets, 11-10, in extra innings.

Smith finished the contest with three doubles and four RBI, Tom Lutz drilled a clutch three-run triple in the sixth, Rob Wilson smacked two doubles; and Steve Eldred laced a two-bagger and single.

Chris Scarpa notched the mound win in relief while Ralph Dellatto, om Finneran and Scott Lattanzio contributed a double and single apiece or the Mets.

Dodgers, 5-3

Chuck Arrigo scattered five hits in a route-going effort, and helped himself with a double and two singles as the Dodgers edged the Cubs, 5-3.

Paul Burke homered for the Dodgers, while John Recesso and Larry Cuddy were the big hitters for the Cubs.

Giants, 11-9

The Giants, pouring aross a host of unearned runs, trimmed the Braves 11-9 in a key first-place battle.

Tom Lutz lashed three hits and collected two RBI for the winners, while winning hurler Chris Scarpa added two hits and three RBI.

Pat Plaehn and Jeff Penner Delivered two hits each for the Braves, and Plaehn also picked up two RBI.

Pirates, 8-0

Mark Lefebvre fashioned a masterful one-hit shutout as the Pirates blanked the Mets 8-0 in a five-inning contest.

Lefebvre spanked two doubles and a triple, Jim Denoncourt had two doubles and Jeff Fox added two hits for the Pirates. Steve Dougal singled for the lone Mets' safety.

Cards, 7-4

The Cards stung the Cubs 7-4 in a battle of first-half co-champs. The game was called after four innings by darkness and rain.

Zack Apgar laced two safeties and

AMERICAN MAJOR

White Sox, 7-6

In one of the most exciting and crucial AL games of the season, the White Sox edged the defending champion Yankees 7-6 in a dramatic extra-inning contest during which the lead changed hands several times.

The Yanks opened the scoring in the second inning, notching two runs on a pair of walks and some heads-up base running. The Sox bounced back in the home half to tie it 2-2 on singles by Charlie Ziegenbein and Dave Jackson.

Sox' pitcher Rick Desmarais silenced the Yankee bats over the next three innings. Meanwhile, the winners took a 3-2 lead in the third on a bases-loaded walk to Steven Dineen, and made it 4-2 in the fourth when Rod Hollenbeck lashed an RBI single.

The Yankee bats came alive in the top of the sixth, as they grabbed a 6-4 edge after singles by Mike Gibson and Terry Flynn and doubles from Tom Moon and Mike Redgate.

Yanks' lefty hurler Billy Vickers re-tured the first two Sox' batters without incident in the bottom of the sixth. But a walk, a clutch double by Jeff Crowninshield and another timely two-bagger by Desmarais tied it 6-6 and forced extra innings.

Danny Sheehan, who relieved Desmarais in the seventh, retired the Yanks in order and now has surrendered only one run in 16 innings.

Dan Michaud, the Yanks' reliever, surrendered a double to Doug Lindquist and eventually walked Chris Comparato with the bases loaded to end it. Defensive standouts for the Yanks were Vickers and Gibson, while Lindquist and Hollenbeck played well in the field for the Sox.

Hollenbeck laced three hits and Desmarais clubbed two doubles for the victors. Redgate delivered two safeties for the Yanks.

Red Sox, 6-4

The Red Sox scored five runs in the second inning, withstood a four-run Tiger outburst in the third, then notched an insurance tally in the fourth before the rains came and called a halt to the action after four full innings.

Scott Higgins worked the first two innings and Bob Charland the last two for the Sox. They combined for a two-hitter and six strikeouts.

Mike Coelho was practically the entire show for the victors, belting a grand slam home run in the second and a solo shot in the fourth. He also walked once to complete a perfect 2-for-2 night, and Mike now boasts three seasonal home runs.

Scott Higgins chipped in a 3-for-3 effort, rapping three straight singles, while Tom Powers lashed a run-scoring single and other safeties were by Pete Guschoy, Rich Dunn and Bob Charland.

Mark Doherty delivered the big blow for the Bengals, slamming a three-run triple in the third and scoring on a passed ball.

Shane Smith's single was the only other hit, while starter Bill Weidman and reliever Mark Doherty handled the mound chores for the Tigers.

Defensive standouts for the Sox were rightfielder Andy Thompson and shortstop Tom Powers.

White Sox, 12-6

The first-half champion White Sox received a three-hit, seven-strikeout performance from Doug Lindquist enroute to a key 12-6 romp over the Tigers.

Rick Desmarais led the eight-hit Sox' barrage with two doubles and three RBI, while Dan Sheehan clouted a two-run double and Rodney Hollenbeck spiked two safeties.

Bill Weidman contributed two hits for the Tigers, whose pitching was handled by starter Scott Zimmerman and Mark Nardone.

The Sox snapped a 1-1 tie with five runs in the top of the second, and put the game out of sight with four more in the fifth.

Yankees, 8-2

Dave Doucette and Dan Michaud pooled talents on a four-hitter, fanning four, as the Yankees stopped the Indians 8-2.

Mike Gibson paced the five-hit Yanks' attack with a double and single, while Mike Redgate beat out a pair of bunt singles.

Gary Bachinsky, Dave Nelson and Jeff Wolnick hurled two frames apiece for the Indians, who took an early 1-0 edge and were locked in a 1-1 tie entering the third.

Gibson starred defensively at shortstop for the Yanks, starting a crisp 6-3 double play, and Bachinsky played a strong four innings in centerfield after leaving the mound for the Tribe.

Red Sox, 10-4

The Red Sox, catching fire late and capturing their fourth game in five starts, rode a complete-game five-hit pitching performance by Mike Coelho to a 10-4 Over the Orioles at South School.

Coelho struck out 10, walked six, and was never in danger after his mates staked him to a 4-0 lead in the top of the first.

The Six scored in every stanza but the third, adding two in the fifth and two in the sixth, while the Orioles struck for three in the fourth to make it 6-4 at that time.

Tom Powers slammed two hits for the Red Sox, including a solo home run to start the fifth, and he scored three runs.

Rich Dunn added a 2-for-3 effort, one RBI and two runs scored, Mosa Kaleel was 2-for-2 with an RBI, Coelho 2-for-4 with an RBI, and Bob Charland went 2-for-5.

Pete Guschoy banged a run-scoring double and Andy Thompson an RBI single for the winners.

Tim Jennings led the Orioles with a triple and double, starting pitcher Brian Sheehy slapped an RBI single, Tom Marjerison legged out an infield hit, and Gene Kennedy stroked a single.

Guschoy starred defensively at second base for the Sox.

Twins, 6-5

The Twins built a 6-2 lead after four innings and then withstood a late Orioles' rally for a 6-5 makeup triumph.

Brian Barry, the second of three Twins' hurlers who worked four strong innings, registered the victory over Kevin Rourke who whiffed seven in a route-going performance for the O's.

Barry's win boosted his record to a flashy 4-1.

Jim Lowe doubled for the Twins, while Sean Trombly and Jamie Martin were both 2-for-3. Scott Bertetti added a pair of ribbies.

Starting pitcher Brian Gaudet and reliever Billy Lane, who picked up a save, also lashed safeties for the Twins.

Kevin Levesque was the big gun for the Orioles with 2-for-2 and three RBI.

Defensive standouts for the Twins were catcher Jim Thibodeau, and outfielder Roger Fisk whose great throw in the sixth saved the game.

Jason Reeder was the fielding star of the day for the Orioles.

Yankees, 9-3

The Yankees scored four runs in the third and four more in the fifth to sink the Red Sox, 9-3, as Eric Fitzpatrick and left-hander Billy Vickers combined for a five-hitter and eight strikeouts.

Eric Fitzpatrick, Mike Gibson and Tom Moon slugged two hits apiece for the Yanks, while Terry Flynn's based-loaded double broke the game open.

The victors' outfield of Moon, Flynn and Mike Klinger made several fine catches, as the Sox hit the ball hard but right at Yankee fielders most of the game.

Tom Powers had a pair of hits for the Sox while Scott Higgins, Rich Dunn and Mike Coelho shared the pitching duties.

White Sox, 17-1

The White Sox did all their offensive damage in the first four innings, and winning pitcher Dan Sheehan joined Jamie Bernardin to toss a four-hitter in a 17-1 romp over the Twins.

Jeff Crowninshield was the Sox' offensive leader with two hits, two RBI and two thefts of home.

Rick Desmarais added two safeties, Doug Lindquist doubled, Dave Jackson laced an RBI single and Dillon Callahan singled for the White Sox.

For Sheehan, who worked three shout-out innings, it marked the fourth game he has pitched without surrendering a run.

Callahan was a defensive standout as catcher for the Sox, who also pulled off a double play from Crowninshield to Hollenbeck to Desmarais (a rare second to first to third play).

Indians, 13-7

The long-suffering Indians finally collected that elusive first victory, breaking the game open with three runs in the third, three in the fourth, three in the fifth and four in the top of the sixth to beat the Twins, 13-7.

Winning pitcher Bill Foley went the distance and clubbed a two-run double while Greg McAnern, Jim Daly and Rob Barnard chipped in two hits each. Dave Nelson also doubled and Bob Pothier scored two runs.

Defensive standouts for the Tribe were first baseman Gene Sullivan, catcher Jeff Wolnick, Dave McDonough, John Morrow and Bill Earnshaw.

Jamie Martin lashed two hits for the Twins, who rallied to score four times in the bottom of the sixth.

Brian Gaudet and Brian Barry slapped doubles, and the defensive play of the game was by Twins' shortstop Jim Thibodeau who raced into shallow left field for a running catch with the bases loaded to end an Indians' rally.

Orioles, 10-2

Jason Reeder and John Sheedy, pitching three innings apiece, combined for a two-hitter as the Orioles dumped the Yankees 10-2.

The pair surrendered four walks and fanned 10.

The O's stroked eight hits with six different players getting in on the action.

Reeder was the big stick with a double and two singles, while Kevin Rourke and Mark Dawley added extra-base hits.

Brian Finnerty's two-run single in the first launched the Orioles' attack, and six different O's players finished with RBI.

Dan Michaud, Dave Doucette and Billy Vickers all had a hand in the Yanks' pitching. They struck out 10 but issued nine walks.

Terry Flynn and Doucette contributed the Yankee hits, while Vickers and Eric Fitzpatrick scored the runs.

White Sox, 8-2

Dan Sheehan and Doug Lindquist combined on a three-hitter as the Sox trimmed the Indians, 8-2.

Sheehan chipped in two hits and two RBI, Charlie Ziegenbein had two hits and one RBI, Doug Lindquist one hit and two RBI, and Jamie Bernardin one hit and one ribbie for the Sox.

Billey Foley delivered two of the Tribe's safeties, while the mound chores were handled by Gary Bachinsky and Greg McAnern.

Jim Daly and Tim Perry were defensive standouts for the Indians.

Jeff Crowninshield leaped high to snag a line drive with the bases loaded in the sixth, ending the game and a serious threat by the Indians.

The White Sox put the game away early, scoring six runs on seven hits in the first frame.

Meeting Monday For LL World Series Trip

Any boy in Greater Lawrence between the ages of 9-15 who is interested in going on a nine-day journey to Williamsport, Pa. to witness the Little League World Series should contact Trip Director Frank Monette immediately.

There are still openings left but are being filled rapidly. the trip will begin Aug. 19 and end Aug. 27. Cost of the trip will be $95.00 besides taking part in some fund raising. If you wish to by-pass the fund raising the trip cost is $135.

Frank Monette, who is a long-time coach in Andover, has organized the trip for the past nine years and already has four chaperones ready to take part in the trip. Last year 22 youngsters and 4 chaperones made the trip.

There will be a meeting Monday evening, 7:30 p.m. July 10 at the est Parish Church Vestry in West Andover off Lowell Street (Rte. 133), for those who will be attending and for those interested in obtaining more information or interested in being a chaperone.

On the first day of the trip we stop at the Basketball Hall Of Fame in Springfield, and the first three days will be spent at the Pine Grove Motel in Cooperstown, N.Y. which is set between the colorful Adirondack and Catskill Mountains. Cooperstown is the site where the first game of baseball was played in 1839 at Doubleday Field and the National Baseball Hall Of Fame and Museums are located. People that have gone on this trip in the past were so impressed with the Baseball Hall Of Fame that three days will be spent here this year, because there is so much to see.

On the fourth day of the trip, the group will leave Cooperstown and head for Williamsport for the Little League World Series. brief stops along the way at Museums will be added attractions. The group will stay at the Hemlock Motel in Trout Run, Pa. in the Pocono Mountains for the remainder of the trip. The motel is ten miles from where the Little League games are played. Use of basketball and tennis courts, swimming pool, baseball field with lights for night games and golf and use of the Y.M. C.A. in Williamsport for a day will be among the attractions. The boys will get chance to play ball or other sports activities every day of the trip in the beautiful Pennsylvania country surrounded by mountains.

At Williamsport, (home and headquarters of Little League Baseball) the boys will witness the finest Little League players in the World from South America, Canada, Germany, China, Japan, Europe and the United States, competing for the world championship. It would take quite a lengthy letter to describe the excitement, knowledge, fun and numerous experiences that the boys have on the trip.

Indians Extend Streak

The Andover Senior Little League Indians continued to win, hiking their overall record to 6-2 last week with a 20-8 romp over the Red Sox and a nine-inning 13-9 decision over the Dodgers.

In the victory over the Sox, Glen McIntyre went the route on the mound and his teammates gave him a soft cushion with eight runs in the first.

There were no less than six lead changes in the Indians-Dodgers game, as winning chucker Mark Easton stuck it out all the way in his first pitching assignment.

The Tribe appeared enroute to its fifth straight win, leading the undefeated Pirates 10-5, but the game was called because of darkness in the fourth frame.

Shawsheen Students At Camp

Recently, fifth and sixth grade students at the Shawsheen Elementary School, Andover, spent 4 days at Camp Union, Otter Lake Environmental School, Greenfield, N.H. The experience is in connection with Andover's Elementary Schools' Outdoor Environmental School Program.

Camp Union is located near Crotched Mountain, and offers numerous types of environments: a lake, wetlands, forest, and mountains. At camp, the students learn to improve their senses so as to be more aware of their environment and its ecology.

Accompanying the students on their trip were Robert Kessler, Gary Chadwell, Jane Snow, and Katherine Iworsley, teachers at Shawsheen School.

As followup activities to their environmental experience the students have been involved in several clean-up projects in the Shawsheen area.

NEVER ARGUE WITH SUCCESS

There is a sound philosophy based on the premise: "Never argue with success." If you have the urge to invest in real estate, listen to what some of the most successful investors have to say about it.

Andrew Carnegie:
"Ninety percent of all millionaires become so through owning real estate. More money has been made in real estate than in all industrial investments combined. The wise young man or wage-earner invests his money in real estate."

Marshall Field:
"Buying real estate is not only the best way, the quickest way, and the safest way, but the only way to become wealthy."

John D. Rockefeller:
"The big fortunes in the future will be made in real estate."

John Jacob Astor:
(He's a little more specific.) "Buy on the fringe and wait. Buy land near a growing city! Buy real estate when other people want to sell. Hold what you buy."

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in
at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100.
We're here to help.

tainment from the bandstand throughout the afternoon and evening hours and a concert and demonstration drill will be featured at the Playstead at dusk prior to the fireworks display.

Hoskings said that the Jaycees, taking over the program as part of their civic activities, said that every effort is being made to have the holiday celebration a family affair with the hopes of making the Fourth a safe and enjoyable one for Andover residents.

"It's inconceivable," he said, "that what the hockey program needs is life and enthusiasm. They want to be competitive, and it doesn't take $6000 more to be competitive."

Swift had given that figure as the amount needed to beef up the hockey program.

Dick Neal a longtime supporter of the Andover Hockey Association, said he was convinced that if they eliminated hockey, there would be no alternative for the boys who are hockey players.

"It doesn't matter whether there are 40 or 50 or 30 or 80 boys involved," he said. "They're the ones whose talent and skill is in hockey."

Neal also brought up the question of boys going to private school to play hockey.

"Why do they do this?" he asked. "Because it's not a good program. If you eliminate the program, you are advocating that they leave the system."

Dick Benson, president of the AHA, called hockey the "Lost child of sports in Andover," and said that despite the fact that the AHA last year assisted "financially, physically and every other way," they weren't told about the possible dropping of the varsity sport.

"It's a crying shame," he said, "to lose the program because it's hanging on 40 guys, when some 275 younger boys are counting on it. If you take away the high school program, we're done in this town, because the boys don't want to play youth sports and then hang it up."

Effect Of Bobby Orr

He claimed that hockey did go downhill after Bobby Orr left Boston, but that it wasn't dying and that in fact, they're picking up new kids.

"I'm not asking for a rink, but for some fair play," he said and concluded that "if in the past you haven't given hockey fair consideration, why not start now."

School Committeeman Joseph Finn called Swift's reorganization proposal "well thought out" and admitted the "need exists," but as indicated he wouldn't vote for anything that would interfere with the hockey program.

His motion for reorganization, providing the administration found the funds elsewhere in the budget, was supported by Alan Doerr, but ended in stalemate when Chairman David Ahouse and Casimir Kolaski voted against it. Committeeman Elaine Viehmann was absent.

Finn had objected to a Kolaski amendment that the administration find the money within the phys ed budget itself.

"I don't see hockey as important enough to drain the money off purely educational matters," Kolaski had contended.

He said there were a number of education issues postponed at budget time, and that he didn't want hockey to appear to have priority over them without further discussion.

Finally, a Finn motion to defer implementation of the reorganization plan until next year's budget was passed 3-1, with Ahouse opposing.

Shark hide is the most durable in the world because of the cross weave of the fibers. It is six to ten times stronger than cowhide, Massachusetts Audubon tells us.
